

Addendum for First Home Owner Boost Scheme to claim the extra $14 000 boost for new homes

Lodgement Guide

NOTE: To claim the $7000 boost for the purchase of an established home, you will only need to complete the First Home Owner Grant application form.

When does the $14 000 Boost payment apply?

The First Home Owner Boost provides for an extra $14 000 to the existing $7000 First Home Owner Grant, for the construction or purchase of eligible new homes where the contract is made, (or in the case of owner builders, where construction commences), on or after 14 October 2008 and on or before 30 June 2009.

Where the consideration* is less than $21 000, the applicant will be entitled to an amount equal to the value of the consideration.

* NOTE: Consideration is the purchase price or the value, of the construction contract or the construction costs of the home but does not include owner builders own labour.

What is a new home?

- the home must have never been previously occupied as a residence, including occupation by the builder, a tenant or other occupant
- where a home is being purchased, it must be the first sale of that home.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the $14 000 boost, you must satisfy:

- all the eligibility requirements for the existing $7000 First Home Owner Grant ➤ Please refer to the First Home Owner Grant guide and application form for details of the existing $7000 grant and
- the additional eligibility requirements in either Part A, B, C or D of this addendum.

This addendum will be considered with the information contained in your 'Application for First Home Owner Grant' form.

Only new home purchases and constructions are eligible for the $14 000 boost.

You are not eligible to claim the extra grant if your contract, being the subject of this application, replaces a rescinded contract made before 14 October 2008 and is a contract to purchase the same home or to build the same or a substantially similar home.

Penalties

SRO, as part of its role in administering the First Home Owner Grant Act 2000, conducts investigations to ensure that applicants comply with the conditions of the Act. If applicants receive the grant when they are not entitled, or do not comply with the residence requirement, penalties of up to 100 per cent may be imposed.

Providing false or misleading information to SRO is a criminal offence. If it is determined that an applicant has provided false or misleading information to obtain, or attempt to obtain the grant, then prosecution action may be undertaken.

How to complete the application form

Only complete one of the following parts:

- Part A ➤ to be completed by applicants who have entered into a contract to build a new home
- Part B ➤ to be completed by applicants who have entered into a contract to buy a new home (not being a contract to buy a new home off the plan)
- Part C ➤ to be completed by applicants who are owner builders and who have constructed a new home
- Part D ➤ to be completed by applicants who have contracted to buy a new home off the plan

Note: If you cannot provide all the information in either Part A, B, C or D but consider you may be eligible for the boost payment please contact our office.

Lodging

How to lodge this application:

- where you have not yet made an application for the First Home Owner Grant – lodge this addendum with the 'Application for First Home Owner Grant' form.
- where the Commissioner of State Revenue has already approved the payment of the First Home Owner Grant – lodge this addendum with a copy of the Commissioner's approval letter.

Where to lodge this addendum:

- the approved agent who is providing finance for your home. A list of approved agents can be found at www.sro.tas.gov.au, or
- at your nearest Service Tasmania shop.

NOTE: If you are not obtaining finance from a Financial Institution that has been approved to accept and process applications (called an "approved agent") you are required to lodge the application with Service Tasmania. If you have any questions about this process please speak to your Financial Institution or the State Revenue Office (phone (03) 6233 2927) about your options.
